MEMORANDUM FOR Commander, Headquarters, 101st Sustainment Brigade, 6741 Airborne Street, ATTN: AFKB-KE-CO (CPT Risher), Fort Campbell, KY 42223

SUBJECT: Distinctive Unit Insignia for the Headquarters and Special Troops Battalion, 101st Airborne Division Sustainment Brigade

1. The distinctive unit insignia redesignated effective 30 September 2015, for the Headquarters and Special Troops Battalion, 101st Airborne Division Sustainment Brigade, was:

a. Originally authorized for the 101st Sustainment Brigade by letter AAHS-IHS, The Institute of Heraldry, 22 November 2010.

b. Amended to correct the motto by letter AAHS-IHS, The Institute of Heraldry, 15 December 2010.

2. The description and symbolism of the design are as follows:

DESCRIPTION

A Gold color metal and enamel device 1 3/16 inches (3.02 cm) in height overall blazoned as follows: Tierced in pairle reversed Gules, Vert and Or, in the first a deployed parachute Argent, in the second a saltire coupé nowy pierced of the third and in the third a compass rose Sable charged in the center with an eagle's head erased of the third garnished of the fifth between on each directional point playing card symbols - in chief a club, a spade and heart in fess and in base a Torii gate all of the third. Attached below a Black scroll inscribed "VITA VERSUS" in Gold.

SYMBOLISM

Red implies liberation. The deployed parachute denotes the unit's area of operations, which the Brigade supports. The saltire with the pierced circular center alludes to helicopter propellers. Black suggests steadfastness and strength. The compass rose symbolizes the global directional support to forces anytime, anywhere under all conditions. The eagle's head, adapted from the 101st Airborne Division's shoulder sleeve insignia, alludes to the unit's airborne status when the organization was founded. The playing card symbols and the Torii gate allude to the original symbols painted on the 101st Soldiers' helmets during World War II. The motto translates to "Lifeline."
