SUBJECT: Distinctive Unit Insignia for the 201st Military Intelligence Brigade

1. The distinctive unit insignia (DUI) redesignated effective 16 September 2015, for the 201st Military Intelligence Brigade, was:

a. Originally approved for the 201st Military Intelligence Brigade by letter DAPC-PDH-A, The Institute of Heraldry, 29 April 1987.

b. Redesignated effective 16 October 2008, with the description updated for the 201st Battlefield Surveillance Brigade by letter AAHS-IHS, The Institute of Heraldry, 11 April 2008.

2. The description and symbolism of the design are as follows:

DESCRIPTION

A silver color metal and enamel device 1 1/8 inches (2.86 cm) in height overall consisting of a blue disc bearing a silver polestar encircled at top and sides by a black scroll inscribed "WITH COURAGE AND VISION" in silver letters, and in base three alternate wavy bars of blue and silver superimposed by a silver mountain peak supporting a griffin sergeant grasping a sword and a lightning flash, all gold.

SYMBOLISM

Oriental blue and silver gray are the colors associated with the Military Intelligence branch. Black denotes secrecy. The blue disc superimposed by the silver polestar symbolizes the world and the far reaching capabilities of the unit. The blue and silver wavy bars allude to World War II campaign participation in the Pacific. The silver mountain peak is representative of the Korean campaigns. The griffin, having the keen eyesight of an eagle and the strength and courage of a lion, indicates the attributes of Military Intelligence and also alludes to the motto. The lightning flash is indicative of communications, electronic warfare capabilities and the origin of the unit as a signal unit.
